Nordson STEM LC

Math Learning Center and STEM Learning Centers have merged— now they are STEM LEARNING CENTERS

How to get started
The STEM Learning Centers (STEMLC) is a great place to complete your assignments with peers. Bring any questions from biology, biotechnology, chemistry, computer science, math, physics, physical science, and most other science courses to the STEMLC. Our trained tutors will help you with no appointment needed; however, we also offer weekly 25-minute appointments for students at the Oceanside, San Elijo, and online branches.

What to expect
From professors, learning coaches, and peer tutors, our STEMLC team is ready to help you succeed. Friendly drop-in tutoring services that cover nearly all science and math courses, along with helpful handouts created by the staff to supplement your class notes. We also have items for check-out (textbooks on reserve, calculators, headphones, laptops, science models, and personal whiteboards) as well as computers for online homework. Attend sessions with other students, scientists, and professors to help you study more effectively, succeed in your courses, and learn about career opportunities. For current hours, visit miracosta.edu/STEMLC.
Where to find the STEMLC
- Oceanside Campus, Admin Building (1068)
- San Elijo Campus, Learning Commons (Room 111)
- Community Learning Center, Learning Commons— Math Focused Support (Room 148)
- Online

Writing Center

WRITING CENTER (WC)

How to get started
Bring your writing assignment from any MiraCosta class. Don't have any writing completed? Don't worry, we can help with brainstorming, drafting, and even the final stages of revision in a writing feedback session. Assistance with personal statements for transfer or scholarship applications, reading strategies, and parts of speech (grammar) is also available.

What to expect
On all three campuses (Oceanside Campus, San Elijo Campus, and the Community Learning Center) you can make a Zoom appointment, get video feedback, or drop-in at your convenience to work on your writing, reading, or speeches. For current hours, please visit miracosta.edu/WC.

Where to find the WC
- Oceanside Campus, Admin Building (Room 1024)
- San Elijo Campus, Learning Commons (Room 118)
- Community Learning Center, Learning Commons (Room 148)
