QUESTIONS FOR CHAPTER NINE

1. Briefly describe life in a typical Mandan village during its “Golden Age.” What kind of relations did the Mandans have with the Lewis and Clark expedition? What happened to the Mandans once the American presence became permanent?

2. Why was Jefferson’s inauguration so “momentous”? In what ways was his “political thinking” affected by European events? How successful was he in building an “agrarian republic of virtue?”

3. Under John Marshall what was his goal of “judicial review.” How did Marbury v. Madison help him achieve it?

4. What were the results and political implications of the Louisiana Purchase? What were some of Jefferson’s foreign problems? How effective was his embargo act?
5. Why was Jefferson’s Indian policy called “contradictory?” Describe the rise of the pan-Indian military resistance movement. How effective was Tecumseh as its leader?

6. What were the causes and outcome of the War of 1812? What did the Hartford Convention represent? Why was Monroe’s administration described as the “Era of Good Feelings?”

7. During John Quincy Adams’s administration what underlying tensions or problems did the “American System”, the Monroe Doctrine, the Panic of 1819, and the Missouri Compromise reflect?
