

Letters, Pre-Transfer ASSESSMENT PLAN

Fall 2019

Mid-semester Team Meeting & Workshop:

Friday, 10/25/19 • 1:30-3:30 PM • OC3510

End of Semester Portfolio Read:

Friday, 12/6/10 2019 • 1:00-4:00 PM • OC3510

Remuneration: Faculty of record who attend the reading session and bring their class(es)' set of portfolios will be paid a percentage of their LHE that closely approximates $250. Faculty members with no participating students (e.g. English 100 instructors) may elect FLEX credit.

ENGL 49, ACE/ESL 149 Portfolio Criteria

1. Students include a multi-paragraph expository essay—their “show case” essay that can be assessed using the portfolio rubric. (length guidelines: 3-4 pages)
2. Students include the materials that built the essay and that demonstrate stages of process writing.
3. Students include a 30-45 minute in-class written reflection on their growth as readers and writers during the semester: How have you grown and changed as a writer over the course of the semester? What do you feel are your strengths? What are some areas you feel you can continue to improve?
4. Students organize the portfolio contents in a 2-pocket folder with the show case essay on one side and the process materials and in-class essay on the other.
5. Instructor provides a clear, concise prompt that communicates the students' essay purpose and focus. The essay prompt should be placed on top of the show case essay or in proximity to it.
6. Instructor's name should be clearly written on the outside of the folder.
7. Instructor completes the first assessment of the essay using the portfolio rubric and places this rubric behind the show case essay without showing evaluation.

ENGL 49, ACE/ESL 149 SLOs

At the end of instruction in ENGL 49 or ACE/ESL 149, students will be able to . . .

- Given an audience and purpose, students will compose a coherent text supported by concrete details.
- Students will craft text that correctly punctuates sentence boundaries.
- Students will identify the purpose and main idea or claim in assigned readings from credible published sources.

ENGL 50, ACE/ESL 150 Portfolio Criteria

1. Students include a reading-based, thesis-driven expository essay—their “show case” essay that can be assessed using the portfolio rubric. (length guidelines: 3-5 pages)
2. Students include the materials that built the essay and that demonstrate stages of process writing.
3. Students include a timed, in-class, handwritten expository essay (60-90 minutes; attach prompt)
4. Students include a one-page letter to the evaluators explaining the selection of the showcase essay, commenting on the essay’s strengths and/or weaknesses, and how it demonstrates what the student learned through the semester about effective writing.
5. Students organize the portfolio contents in a 2-pocket folder with the show case essay on one side and the process materials and in-class essay on the other.
6. Instructor provides a clear, concise prompt that communicates the students’ essay purpose and focus. The essay prompt should be placed on top of the show case essay or in proximity to it.
7. Instructor’s name should be clearly written on the outside of the folder.
8. Instructor completes the first assessment of the essay using the portfolio rubric and places this rubric behind the show case essay without showing evaluation.

ENGL 50, ACE/ESL 150 SLOs

At the end of instruction in ENGL 50 or ACE/ESL 150, students will be able to . . .

- Summarize controlling ideas or details of a text, integrate the summary into their own writing, and be able to identify the summary’s rhetorical purpose.
- Given an audience and purpose, students will compose a coherent, well-developed multi-paragraph text.
- Students will be able to incorporate accurately and meaningfully a detail or idea from a piece of expository prose into their own writing using direct quotation.

English/ESL/ACE 49 Course Objectives

English 49	ESL/ACE 49
At the end of the course, students will demonstrate the ability to: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Develop and express opinions by examining connections between course materials and personal experiences and observations.2. Identify and comprehend main ideas, supporting detail, and organization in expository prose written by and for authors and audiences of diverse backgrounds. Identify the denotative meanings of words through context clues and reference resources.3. Recognize purpose and audience of a given writing assignment. Use the writing process to compose paragraphs and multi-paragraph writing assignments characterized by a strong, controlling idea supported by specific evidence and examples.4. Identify relevant ideas and examples from assigned readings and resources.5. Compose correctly structured simple and compound sentences. Demonstrate control of verb tenses / forms, basic comma usage, capitalization, and spelling principles.6. Apply academic and workplace skills, including information competency (library skills), time management, listening and speaking, and inter-personal skills including working as a member of a team.	At the end of the course, students will demonstrate the ability to: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Examine connections between course materials and personal experiences and observations. Develop and express opinions.2. Identify and comprehend main ideas, supporting detail, and organization in expository prose written by and for authors and audiences of diverse backgrounds. Identify the denotative meanings of words through context clues and reference resources.3. Recognize purpose and audience of a given writing assignment. Use the writing process to compose paragraphs and multi-paragraph writing assignments characterized by a strong, controlling idea supported by specific evidence and examples.4. Identify relevant ideas and examples from assigned readings and resources.5. Compose correctly structured simple and compound sentences. Demonstrate control of verb tenses / forms, basic comma usage, capitalization, and spelling principles. Reduce stylistic characteristics that traditionally mark the writing of non-native speakers.6. Apply academic and workplace skills, including information competency, listening and speaking, and interpersonal skills, including working as a member of a team.

English/ESL/ACE 50 Course Objectives

English 50	ESL/ACE 50
At the end of the course, students will demonstrate the ability to: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Identify and explain relationships; articulate solutions to problems, and draw conclusions from a variety of texts and resources.2. Comprehend and summarize main ideas, supporting detail, and organization in expository prose written by and for authors and audiences of diverse backgrounds. Respond to written positions with ideas and examples from personal experience. Identify the denotative and connotative meanings of words through context clues and reference resources.3. Identify and apply knowledge of purpose and audience in writing. Use the writing process to compose multi-paragraph writing assignments characterized by a controlling idea, logical organization, and fully developed paragraphs supported by evidence and analysis.4. Select information from a source, and incorporate that information into writing by quoting, summarizing, and paraphrasing.5. Compose a variety of correctly structured simple, compound, and complex sentences. Demonstrate control of verb tense sequencing / usage, commas, and semicolons. Apply proofreading strategies to edit at the sentence level.6. Apply academic and workplace skills, including information competency, listening and speaking, and interpersonal skills, including working as a member of a team.	At the end of the course, students will demonstrate the ability to: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Identify and explain relationships; articulate solutions to problems, and draw conclusions from a variety of texts and resources.2. Comprehend and summarize main ideas, supporting detail, and organization in expository prose written by and for authors and audiences of diverse backgrounds. Respond to written positions with ideas and examples from personal experience. Identify the denotative and connotative meanings of words through context clues and reference resources.3. Identify and apply knowledge of purpose and audience in writing. Use the writing process to compose multi-paragraph writing assignments characterized by a controlling idea, logical organization, and fully developed paragraphs supported by evidence and analysis.4. Select information from a source, and incorporate that information into writing by quoting, summarizing, and paraphrasing.5. Compose a variety of correctly structured simple, compound, and complex sentences. Demonstrate control of verb tense sequencing / usage, commas, and semicolons. Apply proofreading strategies to edit at the sentence level. Reduce stylistic characteristics that traditionally mark the writing of non-native speakers.6. Apply academic and workplace skills, including information competency, listening and speaking, and interpersonal skills, including working as a member of a team.