The district shall have library and instructional support services that are an integral part of the education program. Instructional support services include technology enhanced learning, a math learning center, tutoring and academic support center, and a writing center.