RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS & CODE LISTS

Residency Requirements

The residency rules as established by Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations require a one-year physical presence in the state of California prior to the first day of the term combined with one year of evidence of intent and ability to establish residency in California. Students may be required to present evidence regarding their residency such as:

1. payment of resident state income tax,
2. resident vehicle registration,
3. California driver's license, and
4. voter registration.

Some exceptions and limitations to the residency requirement exist; consult with the Admissions and Records Office. Students in classes for which no college credit is granted will not be required to pay tuition.
