After you have been accepted by MiraCosta College, you need to transfer your SEVIS I-20 form before you can start attending MiraCosta College. You can not attend MiraCosta College until you complete the F-1 transfer process according to the Department of Homeland Security regulations. You are required to follow all F-1 student regulations including to report address change during F-1 transfer.

Step 1—Request Transfer
Ask your current school to transfer your SEVIS I-20 record by completing the attached School Transfer Information form (on the back). Your current school will ask you to provide your acceptance letter issued by MiraCosta College.

Step 2—Determine Transfer Date
If you plan to travel anywhere outside the United States, talk to your current school advisor and MiraCosta International Office to determine transfer date. After your SEVIS record is released by your current school to MiraCosta College, please report to the International Office at MiraCosta College with:

1) your passport
2) all I-20 forms
3) your current mailing address

Step 3—Class Registration & New Student Orientation
Complete class registration and pay for classes to show full-time Enrollment at MiraCosta College. You are required to attend the New Student Orientation.

Step 4—New I-20
After class registration, you will receive the new I-20 from MiraCosta College to complete transfer process.
