

The schedule description should be one or two complete sentences that summarize the intent (introduces, explores, analyzes, addresses, develops, reviews, provides, etc.) and content of the course.

Example:

This course introduces beginning vocational nursing students to therapeutic communication, the nursing profession, basic nursing skills, basic pharmacology, and the nursing process. [From a nursing course]