

The Other Required Materials section allows the faculty author to identify typical print and non-print materials other than textbooks that are required.

Examples:

- Safety goggles (for a chemistry course).
- Paper, graphite pencils, charcoal, and pastels to complete outside assignments (for an art course).
- Access to a working copy of the Avid ProTools Digital Audio Software application and a suitable computer (for a music technology course).