MiraCosta College
International Conversation Café
An Opportunity for Students Learning a Second Language

Wednesday, March 10, 2010
5:30 – 6:30pm
Student Center – Aztlan A & B
Oceanside Campus

Conversation in Chinese, English, French, German, Italian, Japanese, and Spanish will be served up on Wednesday, March 10th in Aztlan A & B in the Student Center at the Oceanside Campus. First-come, first-served conversationalists will be guided to tables for lively language practice and light refreshments. Facilitators will be initiating the conversation, so be sure to arrive on time. Once conversations begin, we will not add late arrivals.

Ask your instructor about credit for participating in this project and plan to join in the conversation on March 10th.

Sponsored by MiraCosta College Language and Culture Alliance (International Language Department; English as a Second Language, credit and noncredit; Community Services Language Workshops and English Language and College Skills Institute; and the Institute for International Perspectives.)
