VI. PRESENTATIONS

A. Update on the U.S. Census and Redistricting of Trustee Areas Pursuant to Education Code § 5019.5

Christopher Skinnell, partner at Nielsen Merksamer Parrinello Gross & Leoni, LLP, Attorneys at Law, provided the board with an update on the redistricting process and the demographics of the current trustee areas. The board was then asked to adopt criteria to guide the demographic consultants, National Demographics Corporation, in the preparation of draft maps to be considered by the board at future hearings per the timeline previously adopted. Communities of interest added were the Camp Pendleton Marine Base and the Barrio in Carlsbad. The board also discussed the option of looking at elementary schools in the study.

B. Online Education Update

Faculty Director of Online Education Dr. Jim Julius provided a report on distance education, which included an update on the transition to primarily online instruction. An overview was provided of faculty professional learning and the opportunities and challenges in the work ahead as MiraCosta College prepares for the 2021/22 academic year. A number of new online and hybrid class formats and support services have developed as a result of the pandemic, and students are appreciating the flexibility and options available to complete their academic goals. The college will continue its work of expanding online education innovation and program offerings that support broad student needs and interest, as well explore low and zero cost courses and programs.

C. Student Conduct and Police Advisory Committee (SCPAC) Update

Vice President Tim Flood, committee facilitator, and committee member Abby Burd, mental health counselor, provided an overview of the committee's work in 2020/21. As students and staff transition back to campus, the committee will work on building community and continue their review of trends, statistics, policies and procedures, and providing recommendations to College Police regarding outreach and events. The newly hired Interim Police Chief Val Warner-Sadat was introduced, and Trustee Pedroza lauded the work of this committee.

XI. COLLEGE-RELATED REPORTS

A. Trustee Activities

Trustee Simon attended the Southwestern College accreditation exit interview, the State of the City of Encinitas, Art in Encinitas, and a county presentation on aging and equity in older adults. Trustee Pedroza attended the ACCT dinner with President Cooke and will be attending the Dia de los Muertos events next week. Trustee Merchat attended the Futures session, which he said was coming along extremely well, the facilities update, and announced he is now a proud grandfather. Trustee McNeil attended the Oceanside Meet the City event, the opening of the Pavilion Center Mentoring Program, which is run by MiraCosta alumni Jimmy Figueroa, and has been to many home soccer and volleyball games. Trustee Broad attended the Futures session, the facilities meeting, the KOCT 40-year celebration, and the Cal State San Marcos Report to the Region. President Cassar attended SDICCA, where pending legislation was reviewed, and also attended the DEI in Action Town Hall. He reminded all about the Community Learning Center's grand opening being held on Monday.

B. Students

Student Trustee Alma Cuevas reported she is part of the shared governance Textbook Affordability Committee, she is close to completing her honors project on Covid 19 vaccine hesitancy, she has joined the Honors in Action Committee for Phi Theta Kappa, and she attended a Healthy Oceanside meeting on Monday, where Mayor Sanchez was present. Cuevas shared the Latina Leadership Network Club will be hosting a Zoom event with Coco Brown on November 1.

C. Classified Employees

Classified Senate President Carl Banks reported that the Classified Senate held a fall Meet-and-Greet where breakfast was served to classified professionals. The Classified Senate is now planning the year-end celebration and reviewing the Educational Master Plan. Amy Pimentel has joined the leadership team as a new senator.

D. Faculty

Academic Senate President Luke Lara reported that he and Professor Thao Ha have been busy reformatting reports to highlight the work of faculty in their work on equity. The October 1 and October 15 Academic Senate agendas include links to interviews with some of our professors and the work they have been doing to support this important work. He highlighted the great work of our biomanufacturing faculty and administration and what they have done to advocate for the passage and signing of the biomanufacturing program (AB927), and he reported that this year's ASCCC event in November will be held in a hybrid manner.

E. Vice Presidents

1. Instructional Services

Vice President Pescarmona thanked everyone for the warm welcome she has received and said that the Instruction Office is hard at work on the spring schedule, which will be ready to go by November 1 and about 45 percent of in-person classes will be included. She also attended the play, Tiny Beautiful Things, and is looking forward to attending Antigone in November.

2. Student Services

Vice President Wojcik reported this week is Undocumented Students Week and thanked all those who organized and participated in the events. A vaccination clinic will be held on campus on October 27 and is open to all community members and staff, with no appointments necessary.

3. Administrative Services

Vice President Tim Flood reported that Facilities and AIS are getting things ready for classes to begin next week at the Community Learning Center and for the grand opening. The audit process was started this week, with auditors on site and he thanked the board for their approval of the new Workday ERP system, which is making for more streamlined process.

4. Human Resources

Vice President Ng reported the campus climate survey working group is finishing up some of their recommendations. The EOC is analyzing data and goals on recruitment and retention of employees.

F. Office of the President

Superintendent/President Cooke reported that the Advancement and Public Information Offices are planning for the upcoming events at the Community Learning Center and San Elijo Campus. Rain may be in the forecast, so alternate plans are also being considered. She thanked all who have been preparing and planning at those campuses. The Research, Planning and Institutional Effectiveness Department has been working to make data accessible to folks through our dashboards, and they are leading the effort in two important accreditation events, the High School Diploma Program Midterm Report and our Institutional Self Evaluation Report for our own accreditation taking place in 2023. Cooke also thanked all who worked on being prepared for this meeting today in its new webinar format.
