

Employees and students who use district computers and networks and the information they contain and related resources have a responsibility to not abuse those resources and to respect the rights of others. The superintendent/president shall establish procedures that provide guidelines to students and staff for the appropriate use of information technologies. The procedures shall indicate that users must respect software copyrights and licenses, respect the integrity of computer-based information resources, refrain from seeking to gain unauthorized access, and respect the rights of other computer users.

See Administrative Procedure 3720, Computer and Network Use, and Administrative Procedure 3750, Use of Copyrighted Material.
