

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

2.14 TO
3.15

Menstrual Hygiene Drive Collection in SJEC OC3445
Collection of menstrual hygiene products such as tampons, pads, cups, etc. for MiraCosta College menstruators. The drive is being put on by Social Justice and Equity Center Intern, Ginger Lamb. For more info contact Ginger at glamb@miracosta.edu.

THURS
3.7

Art History of Feminism 12:30-1:30pm in SJEC OC3445
This workshop will focus on the reframing of art history through the rise of Feminist theory. We will look at artists that have been re-examined from a feminist perspective from previous eras, as well as contemporary artists who work from a feminist perspective.

TUES
3.12

Black Feminist Thought 1-2pm in Aztlan A & B
What is Black Feminism? Who can be a feminist? Learn about Black feminist thought and how it can be used to raise consciousness and empowerment in the Black community. Presented by Shawntae Mitchum.

THURS
3.28

Intersectional Feminism 101 11am-12:30pm in OC2011
Join us for a workshop on what it means to be truly intersectional within a feminist paradigm. Be prepared to think, share (optional), listen, and discuss. We are looking forward to navigating the crossroads of identity with you!

CONTACT US: STUDENTEQUITY@MIRACOSTA.EDU

MIRACOSTA.EDU/WHM -- VISIT LIBRARY.MIRACOSTA.EDU/WOMENSHISTORY

